DIGITAL LAUNCHPAD

Jan 2021-Present

Africa 118

Sub Saharan Africa

The Digital LaunchPad project is a project sponsored by the Norwegian Agency for Development (NORAD). The project is aimed at equipping and supporting 3000 African SMEs to achieve and sustain success in their businesses by providing them with a comprehensive package of digital tools and expertise (Digital Launch-Pad) to enhance their competitiveness and access global markets.

GOOGLE DIGITAL SKILLS

June 2018 - Present

Africa 118

Sub Saharan Africa

A five-year Google-funded program to train 10million entrepreneurs; Micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) across Africa on how to leverage the web and digital skills to grow their business. So far, under my leadership, we have trained over 1 million SMEs as of the end of 2021.

AFRICAN LAW LIBRARY

April 2015- Aug 2017

Digital Divide Data

Geneva, Switzerland

The African Law Library (ALL) is a "one-stop-shop" online portal and database that offers free legal resources for Africans from multi-disciplinary sectors, including business, academia, government and civil society. Its key functions include the collection and digitization of African laws, court decisions and secondary literature. Under my leadership, we digitized and indexed 50,000+ legal documents cutting across different categories and different African countries onto the free online portal.

AUNT BERTHA/FIND HELP

Jan 2014-Dec 2017

Digital Divide Data

Austin Texas, USA

Aunt Bertha is a company that connects social care for organizations, helping them better assist people and communities. Under my leadership, we indexed and human-verified 300,000+ programs that provide help to millions of people across the country (US)
